RESERVE OF OFFICERS.

The attention of Reserve Officers is particularly directed to the following Regulation:—

An Army Reserve Officer shall report himself at the commencement of each year, in writing, to the Secretary of the War Office. Should he fail to do so he shall (unless he be an Officer retired from the Regular Forces with liability for further service in case of emergency) be removed from the Reserve of Officers at the end of the year in which he fails to report himself.

Reserve Officers reporting themselves in compliance with this Regulation, will, at the same time, furnish their addresses for the current year; and any subsequent change of address should be at once notified to the War Office.

Reserve Officers accepting service under any Government Department, County, Borough, or Municipal Authority should notify the fact to the Secretary of the War Office as soon as possible.

[Officers whose names are printed in Italics are not immediately available for Army Service though liable to be recalled to service.]

[Officers marked thus † are voluntarily in the Reserve of Officers.]

APPENDIX TO ARMY ORDER 294.

Instructions upon Royal Warrant.

ESTABLISHMENT.

1. In accordance with the above Royal Warrant, revised establishments have been fixed to provide for the maintenance of the Army Pay Department and Army Pay Corps at a strength necessary to secure the numbers required for field service, and for the performance of the duties of cash accounting in peace. The establishments of officers are detailed in Sub-Appendix A. Those of the Army Pay Corps will be published hereafter, as the subordinate staff is in process of gradual adjustment.

The names of the staff allotted to the various offices will be communicated to General Officers commanding by letter.

2. For the present, officers supernumerary in any rank will be reckoned in the establishment of the next lower rank. A further intimation will be made in regard to the rate and manner of absorbing supernumeraries.

3. Pending the entry of additional officers of the Army Pay Department, certain vacancies in the rank of paymaster will be filled by the attachment of civilian assistant accountants, whose position as civil officers will remain as at present while so serving.

ORGANIZATION.

4. The pay and accounting services of the army will in future be separated from audit.

Accounting.

5. The pay services and cash accounting will be undertaken by the Army Pay Department, which will form one of the administrative departments of the command under the general officer in charge of administration. At the War Office it will be administered by the Finance Member of Council, through the Director of Army Accounts.

6. An officer of the Army Pay Department will be appointed "Command Paymaster" in each of the commands. He will act as financial adviser to the general officer in charge of administration in matters relating to the pay and cash accounting services of the command, and in such other matters as that officer may refer to him. He will command the Army Pay Department and the Army Pay Corps within his area, and will exercise supervision and control over all accounts offices in the command. He will have direct charge of the duties previously allocated to the "accountant for district services," and will immediately supervise the cashier.

7. The regimental accountants and cashiers will continue to perform the duties now allocated to them. The regimental accounts will be rendered direct to the auditor (see para. 10) as at present.

8. War Office circular memorandum, dated the 13th February, 1906 (No. 1/Accounts Est./88), will be cancelled, with effect from 1st January, 1910.

9. The confidential reports on Officers of the Army Pay Department, due on the 1st January next, will be rendered to the War Office by the chief accountant (or district paymaster) under whom they were serving on 31st December, and a copy will be handed to the general officer in charge of administration (or senior staff officer). In future years the confidential reports will be rendered, under the usual conditions, to the War Office through the general officer commanding-in-chief. Sub-paragraph (iii.) of paragraph 132, King's Regulations, will be cancelled.

Audit.

10. The audit of cash and store accounts will be carried out by the civilian staff of the Finance Member of Council. In the case of the home commands, Malta (and Egypt) and South Africa, a staff under a local auditor will be detached from the War Office to perform this duty locally on behalf of the accounting officer. In other cases the audit will be performed at or from the War Office, as at present.

The local auditor will take the necessary steps for the incorporation in the Appropriation Account rendered to Parliament of accounts rendered to him.

11. The local auditor will from time to time inspect the accounts offices of the command. He will also carry out the duties hitherto performed by chief accountants in regard to inspection of store accounts and stocktaking.

Independent financial advice.

12. In matters of financial importance, when the general officer in charge of administration considers it desirable to obtain independent financial advice in addition to that of the heads of administrative services and departments (including the command paymaster), he may consult the local auditor; but the advice of this official will neither bind the general officer in charge of administration nor relieve him of responsibility for the action taken.

13. The concurrence of the local auditor will be necessary in all cases in which the regulations now require the concurrence of the chief accountant.

Contracts.

14. The command paymaster will be responsible that all payments made in connection with any contract are due under the terms of the contract, or have been duly authorized. He may draw attention to financial points arising out of the making or administration of contracts.

The local auditor may draw attention to such points in the course of his audit, and in South Africa the reference of tenders for services over 1,000*l.* will be made to him.

Army Order 95 (paragraph 4) and Army Order 240 of 1909 will be amended accordingly.

EXTRA PAY—ARMY PAY DEPARTMENT.

15. The grants of extra pay for duties affected by the reorganization will be dealt with as follows:—
- (i.) The extra pay granted to officers of the Army Pay Department in virtue of their appointment to definite grades in the Army Accounts Department will be continued during their service in their present ranks, i.e., 5s. a day to chief accountants, and 5s. to accountants (7s. 6d. in the case of officers selected as seconds in audit offices). Officers drawing these grants will be limited to a maximum of 7s. 6d. a day for extra pay for all duties, including those of Treasury chest officer.
 - (ii.) Paymasters drawing 2s. 6d. a-day for service in the War Office or in audit offices will continue to draw this sum up to 31st December, 1910, in spite of their withdrawal from such employment in consequence of the reorganization, unless they are promoted before that date, or are drawing extra pay for other duty.
16. The grant of extra pay for Army Pay Department duties is not affected by the reorganization, but notice is given of the following changes otherwise determined:—
- (a.) Extra-duty pay for staff paymasters serving as cashiers will not be drawn after 31st December, 1910, in any case.
 - (b.) The rate of extra pay for paymasters serving as seconds in large accounts offices will in future be 5s. a-day for the period actually in charge only. Those now drawing 2s. 6d. a-day continuously will be allowed to do so up to 31st December, 1910, if they continue so long in their present position.

DATE OF CHANGE.

17. Unless otherwise specified above, the above changes will take effect from 1st January, 1910.

MEMORANDUM FOR INVENTORS.

WAR OFFICE,

1st August, 1908.

1. Instructions how to submit.—Persons who desire to submit any invention for the consideration of the Army Council should do so by letter addressed to the Secretary, War Office, London.

2. The letter should state the nature of the invention and give sufficient particulars to enable its merits to be fully considered, and adduce any evidence there may be of the usefulness of the invention obtained by actual previous experiment. Any drawings, models, or samples which it is desired to submit should either accompany the letter or be sent separately at the same time, or if bulky, particulars should be given as to the place at which the samples or models can be inspected if necessary. All designs, plans, drawings, models, samples, or papers submitted are at the owner's risk, and the department cannot accept any responsibility for damage to them should such occur.

3. Patented Inventions.—The letter should also state whether the invention is patented or provisionally protected in the United Kingdom, and if not patented or provisionally protected, the fact should be stated. If patented or provisionally protected, the number and date of the Patent or Provisional or Complete Specification should be quoted.

4. The attention of inventors is drawn to Section 29 of the "Patents and Designs Act, 1907," whereby it is enacted as follows:—

"A Patent shall have to all intents the like effect as against His Majesty the King as it has against a subject.

"Provided that any Government department may, by themselves, their agents, contractors, or others, at any time after the application, use the invention for the services of the Crown on such terms as may, either before or after the use thereof, be agreed on with the approval of the Treasury, between the department and the patentee, or, in default of agreement, as may be settled by the Treasury after hearing all parties interested."

5. Terms. The letter should also state what remuneration or terms the inventor would ask if the Army Council should desire—

(I.) To acquire exclusive use of the invention.

(II.) To acquire unrestricted use of the invention in His Majesty's Service, but also allowing the inventor a free hand to let others use it.

If no remuneration is desired the fact should be stated.

6. Expenses.—Expenses or loss of time incurred before or after the submission of an invention will give no claim unless authority for such expenses has been previously given by letter signed by the Secretary or the Assistant Secretary of the War Office, or by the Director of Artillery, and the liability will be strictly confined to the limits of expenditure authorised in such letter.

7. Should the Army Council consider it desirable to try an invention, the inventor will, as a general rule, be required to bear the expense of the provision of the article, its carriage, fitting up and removal, but the question whether such expenses shall in special cases be finally borne by the Crown or by the inventor will be decided by the Army Council according to the circumstances of the case.

8. Retention of Description.—The Army Council reserve the right to retain for future reference any designs, plans, drawings, models, samples, or papers forming an essential part of the description of the invention which may be forwarded; but if the inventor desires their return, the Army Council will not refuse it unless they think there is good reason for doing so. It is desirable, however, that the inventor should keep copies.

9. Adoption of the invention.—Should the invention be adopted into His Majesty's Service, terms for its use will be fixed by subsequent agreement, and such terms will include the supply of two copies of all designs, drawings, patterns, and particulars relating to the invention which may be considered necessary by the War Department; and it is to be understood that all such designs, drawings, patterns, and particulars will be absolutely at the disposal of His Majesty's Government for all purposes whatever, and that for them reasonable prices only will be paid by the War Department to cover the cost of draughtsmanship and manufacture.

10. No claim for remuneration for an invention will be held to be established unless the invention has been adopted into the service.

11. All claims for remuneration will be carefully considered; but any award which may be made will only be payable to the claimant when approved by the Treasury, and money is available from funds voted by Parliament for such purposes.

NOTE.—Officers and subordinates.—Paragraphs 5 and 9 of the above memorandum do not apply to the inventions of officers, non-commissioned officers, or soldiers of the regular forces, or civilians or other persons employed under the War Department. Such persons are required to obtain official permission before obtaining a patent; their remuneration will be decided by the Army Council, and their inventions, if patented, are dealt with under special regulations, which give them no right of appeal to the Treasury under Section 29 of the "Patents and Designs Act, 1907."

H.R.H. THE DUCHESS OF CONNAUGHT.

Subscriptions and donations in support of the Charity will be thankfully received by Messrs. Cox & Co., Charing Cross, London, S.W.; by the Secretary, Colonel E. L. F. Jennings, M.V.O., to whom crossed cheques and Postal Orders on the Charing Cross Post Office should be made payable.

The Home was constructed and is equipped for 200 girls, and the desire of the Committee is to maintain the full complement.

The need of such an institution is apparent from the fact that there are on an average three candidates brought forward at each election to every one admitted.

The Committee earnestly appeal to a generous public to aid them in the support of the Charity. They also ask for the co-operation in the good work of every Regiment and Corps.

A contribution of but 6d. a year from each Non-Commissioned Officer and Man throughout the Service would provide for the support of a child from every Regiment.

The Home is open to visitors daily between 10 and 5, except on Saturdays and Sundays.

The Committee invite the inspection of all friends of the Soldier.

MILITARY WIDOWS' FUND, BRITISH SERVICE.

(Late Queen's Military Widows' Fund.)

The Military Widows' Fund, British Service, was established in 1820 to alleviate the distress of families of officers of the British Service and to enable them to return to England without unnecessary delay. Whenever an officer of the British Service, who is a subscriber to this Fund, dies, his family receives at once, the following assistance, namely:—Six months maintenance allowance ranging from Rs. 2,400/ to Rs. 3,600/, according to rate subscribed, plus Rs. 1,500/ for passage for the widow, plus Rs. 500/ or Rs. 300/ for passage for each child, according to whether it is over or under 12 years of age. These benefits are secured by a small subscription of Rs. 4, 3, or 2 per mensem, which is regulated by the amount of pay an officer draws. An officer, immediately on becoming a subscriber, secures at once for his wife and children, quite irrespective of length of service in India, the full benefits of the Fund in case of his death.

In 1902 the sum of Rs. 31,200/ was paid in awards to families of deceased subscribers; and the total amount paid since the establishment of the Fund in 1820 exceeds Rs. 22,00,000/.

Copies of the Regulations of the Fund can be obtained from the Honorary Secretary at Simla.
